from the research of Jerry L. Butler – June 17, 2007

Generation No. 1

1. WILLIAM N.<sup>1</sup> ORE was born Abt. 1817 in North Carolina, and died Bet. 1860 - 1870 in Decatur Co. TN. He married MALINDA ADKISSON, daughter of JOSEPH ADKISSON and ELLENDER BRASHEARS. She was born Abt. 1817 in Tennessee, and died Aft. 1880 in Decatur Co. TN.

Notes for WILLIAM N. ORE:

In the 1850 census, John Roach, age 18, laborer is living in the William Ore household.

Census 2: 1860, Dwelling 367, District 4, Decatur Co. TN

Occupation: 1850, Farmer

Notes for MALINDA ADKISSON:

In the 1870 census, Elender Adkison is living in the Malinda Orr household. Based on this I am determining that Malinda Orr's mother is Elender Adkison.

In the 1880 census, Malinda is listed as Malinda McClure. Apparently, she remarried a McClure between 1870 and 1880 and her husband died before the 1880 census. I am tentatively connecting John McClure as her second husband based on age and proximity in Decatur Co. TN census records. I need to research this marriage further to confirm.

In the 1880 census, Elender Adkisson is also in the household and listed as Mother and US Pensioner.

2. MARY ELENDER<sup>2</sup> ORR (WILLIAM N.<sup>1</sup> ORE) was born August 1839 in Tennessee, and died October 1919 in Decatur Co. TN (Source: Headstone, Ivey Cemetery.). She married JOHN JASPER IVEY Bef. 1860 in Decatur Co. TN, son of WILLIAM IVEY and MARTHA CLUCK. He was born October 30, 1830 in Tennessee, and died May 1885 in Decatur Co. TN (Source: Headstone, Ivey Cemetery.).

Notes for MARY ELENDER ORR:

Mae E. Orr, lived with her husband, John J. Ivy, near the present Mr. Howard Ivy farm on Brooksie Thompson road in Decatur County. John J. served in the Civil War. While he was away in service, she hid meat, cows and horses in the woods on the farm to keep Yankee soldiers from taking them. Each day, she would go out into the woods to tend the livestock and to cut off meat for family meals.

Notes for ALFRED FANNING:

History of Scotts Hill, Tennessee, Gordon Turner

FANNING, Alfred; C.S.A. Pvt. Co. G Newsom's Cav. Married Sarah Orr and after she died, her sister. Reared a large family all of whom later moved away from here except himself and his wife. John H. and Will C. were twins and became top travelling salesmen in anybody's book. From their Lexington homes (John later lived in Jackson), they "made" railroad towns in the hey-day of passenger trains, by catching an early train together and riding north to Beuna Vista. They quickly sold the few merchants there and had time to walk back south to Yuma (two or three miles and finish up there in time to catch the first train south and ride it back through Lexington and on to Beech Bluff. When done at Beech Bluff, they walked back to Huron to see merchants there in time to catch the next train north. They would ride it back through Lexington and on through to Wildersville. There they would "work" stores and walk back to Timberlake in time to finish the one store there and then catch the last train back home to Lexington. What a day! But this was done for years. These "Fanning Boys" made off-railroad towns and merchants usually in a two-horse buggy. Successful, they were always smiling and popular. John sold mostly coffees (Maxwell House) and teas; Will sold groceries and in later years was a top wholesale house official. John's wife was the former Leora ("Ora") Austin here; Will's was the former Cora Davenport, daughter of "Unkle Ike" of Civil War fame. Innes Fanning of Lexington, a grandson of both Fanning and Davenport, is presently one of the nation's best gunsmiths in Lexington, after a professional career as "Rip" Fanning in automobile racing and as both player, official and scout in professional baseball. We used to say here that the blood of both Alf Fanning and Ike Davenport in him, Innes could do almost anything. He almost did! I slept with him in the Will Fanning home for four years while a student in high school there; I know! Great friend; great fellow....Another son of the Fannings was Woodward, a longtime railroader and Edgar, top bandsman here who went to Gleason as a young man to organize a band and remained to become a banker for more than a half century! Their brother, Waiter G. was a playmate-neighbor of mine when we were boys. The only Fanning daughters who lived were Lillian who married Sanford Jones and Elizabeth whose husband was Albert L. Goff.

One of the Best Men I Ever Knew

Alfred Fanning was born in North Carolina 81 years ago last January 9th. He came to this country with his parents when quite young, his father settling in Decatur County, where he lived out his life as a farmer and blacksmith and Alfred followed the occupation of his father.

His first wife was Miss Cassie Orr, who died many years ago, leaving two children, one of whom Mrs. A.L. Goff of Bells, Tenn., survives. For his second wife he married Miss Sarah A. Orr, sister of his first wife, Nov. 14, 1871, and to that union seven children were born and six survive Will and John (twins), Woodward, Edgar, Lillian (Mrs. W.R. Smith), Dyersburg, and Walter.

Mr. Fanning lived practically all his life in Decatur County, many years in Decaturville (where I first met him in April 1881) and the first 12 years in the Decatur County section of Scotts Hill. In August 1918, he gave up his work in the blacksmith shop and moved to Lexington and Mrs. Fanning died here in February 1919. After the death of his wife, Mr. Fanning lived with his children here and elsewhere, finding it hard to be contented without his helpmate.

He was taken ill with influenza and pneumonia nine days before his death which occurred at 9:25 o'clock a.m., March 3rd, in the home of his son, John, here in Lexington, and we are told that almost from the first of his illness he was in a semi-conscious condition.

The funeral service was held in the Fanning home at 12 o'clock noon, on the 4th inst., Revs. H.R. Rose and Fleetwood Ball and Elder J.O. Brown officiating, each paying tribute to the life and character of the good man who had lived to a great age and each offering words of sympathy to the bereft ones.

It was the intention of the Masonic fraternity to take charge of the funeral after the service in the home, but they were delayed and later that service will be held in his memory.

This notice is written not so much to give the family history of Mr. Fanning, but to pay a personal tribute to his life and character by one who had known him for thirty-eight years. When I first went to Decaturville in April, 1881, I met him on that day or very soon after and the writing of this in his memory is prompted by the fact that I have never heard a single statement derogatory to his character. He had no opportunities to secure an education, hence his life was one of hard work, on the farm, the anvil and forge. Under these conditions with the fact that he reared a comparatively large family of children to make useful, respectable and fairly successful men, did he not perform a greater life work than if he had accumulated riches and reaped worldly honors? From the first he seemed to like me and his character as well as his personality commanded my respect and friendship. Even in his last days here in Lexington, it was his pleasure to hunt me up and with me converse of the by-gone days on which the minds of aged men dwell. So, it comes about that as Will Barry, his friend, and not as a newspaper man, it is my pleasure to write of him and to say that in all my life I do not believe I ever knew a cleaner, more honorable man than this simple, plain, unassuming Alfred Fanning. I feel that his children should cherish his character as the richest blessing he could have left them, and I believe they do.

It is a peculiar fact that while Mr. Fanning's faith was that of the Primitive Baptists, he did not affiliate with the church to the extent of membership-which did not alter the fact that his God in the last judgment with clean hands and a clean soul. Peace is the only logical destination for one who had kept the laws of his God and the country in which he lived.--W.V. Barry, Lexington, Tenn., March 9, 1920.

Notes for AUSTIN MANSFIELD BUTLER:

Austin Butler was born in Walker Co. AL in 1858. He was born on land acquired through a land patent purchased by his father, James M. Butler. The family lived in Walker County a short time before moving on in 1861 to northern Alabama. Austin's youngest sister Virgie was born near Tusculumbia in 1862.

By 1870, the family had made its way to Decatur Co. TN. Austin's step sister, George Anna Bishop was married in Decatur County in 1871. Family tradition is that the family was on its way west to Arkansas and stopped along the way in Decatur County and decided to stay. In 1876, Austin, along with his brothers Columbus and Patrick, borrow money from Davy, Torbit & Co. of Point Pleasant to finance their cotton crop on rented land in Decatur County. Austin's oldest half brother, Thomas, is found living in Decatur County in the 1880 census. Austin's half brother, John Wesley and half sister, Sarah Emily, are found in southeast Missouri in 1880. Austin's half brother, James M. is found in Madison Co. TN in 1880. John, Sarah and James all later move to northeast Arkansas.

In 1883, Austin married Millie Alice Ivey, daughter of John Jasper Ivey and Mary Ellender Orr. The Ivey and Orr families were among the early settlers of Decatur County. Austin and Millie did not own any land but were farmers in Decatur County and worked hard to provide for their 10 surviving children. The family lived at several different places in Decatur County. In the early 1900's, they lived on the Ed Renfroe Road near the Mt. Nebo Methodist Church. Austin worked for a while as a "mule skinner" at a mule powered cotton gin that was located near the Red House Inn and owned by W. H. Martin. Austin had the reputation of being able to tame any hard to handle mule by working them on the cotton gin. Local farmers would bring their mules to Austin for encouragement of a more productive disposition. In 1908, a large hail storm struck the area, destroying the roof of the Mt. Nebo Church. Family tradition has it that several roosting chickens were killed in the trees by this hail storm at the nearby Butler home.

Later, the family lived at the Lacy place near Campground Church and off Pritchard Lane between Utah Community and Decaturville. Pritchard Lane was flooded when Kentucky Lake was constructed on the Tennessee River. Austin died in 1918 at home off Pritchard Lane. After his death, the family carried his body by mule and wagon to the Ivey Cemetery for burial. This was a long day's journey on the poor roads at that time. Alice continued to live in Decatur County until 1947 when she died leaving a legacy of 31 grandchildren, 12 great grandchildren and one great-great grandchild. Alice is buried beside Austin at the Ivey Cemetery.

Notes for OPAL G. FANNING:

Opal Fanning (The Lexington Progress, February 9, 1917) Last Tuesday evening when the hands of the clock pointed to the hour of 7:30, the sad news went over Lexington that after a tragic battle in the household of John H. and Mrs. Ora Fanning, the Death Angel had conquered and claimed for his own, Opal, the beloved daughter and only child of Mr. and Mrs. Fanning. The day of her death the 9th inst., was the 14th anniversary of the birth of the only earthly treasure of eh devoted parents. Opal was born in Scotts Hill, this county, and with her parents came to Lexington eight years ago. Here she grew up and attended school, having reached the first grade in the High School when her last illness seized her about two weeks before her death. She was the light of the household, the idol of her parents, beloved by all. She was bright intellectually, amiable by nature, loving and lovable to her parents, relatives and many friends and had before her the promise of a magnificent womanhood. The writer has often seen her in passing and thought every time how proud of her parents should be, as they were. In her premature death, notwithstanding her parents know that she has gone to a home with God-a home infinitely better than the best the world could give-their grief and sorrow is hard to bear. They will be offered all possible consolation by their relatives and friends, but God alone, through the healing balm of time, can bring to them resignation to the unspeakable sorrow which has befallen them.

The funeral service held in the Southern Methodist Church Wednesday afternoon was one of the saddest occasions we have ever known in our thirty three years in Lexington. The house was packed with a limited number of relatives and friends and acquaintances of the bereft father and mother. The beautiful songs selected were sung by the intermediate choir of the church and Sunday School, of which the dead girl was a member, for Opal herself had been a member of the church since the Culpepper meeting here in the summer of 1915. Rev. J. V. Freeman took for his theme the experience of David in the loss of a child; he preached a really fine, sensible and pathetic sermon. Prof. J. O. Brown, in a tribute to the deceased lass, told how loyal, lovable and obedient she was, that she had never needed correction in school and that her deportment was never marked under perfect: 100. The interment was in Lexington Cemetery and when the mound of earth was made over Opal's last earthly resting place, it was more than covered by as beautiful flowers as we have ever seen. May God heal the wounded hearts of Mr. and Mrs. Fanning and may every relative and friend lend every effort to show them that the world has yet many claims upon them, in the performance of which they can find consolation in their seemingly irreparable loss.

Fanning-Pearson

Announcement is made of a marriage very interesting to a number of friends, which occurred April 9, in Huntingdon, when Miss Evelyn Pearson and Mr. Innis Fanning were married, the Rev. Dr. H. O. Garden, of the Presbyterian Church, officiating.

The bride is a very charming member of a family which has been prominent socially and in the business affairs of Henderson county for years. For several years she has held a clerical position in the First National Bank and is very popular socially and in the business world. The groom is equally well connected and has been very successful in professional baseball and auto racing.

Intimate friends have known of the marriage for some time but in the modern fashion they have kept their secret until it suited their pleasure to permit others to express the good wishes which are so generally felt for their happiness. They are now at home to their friend at Mrs. Pearson's apartment in the old Pearson home.

History of Scotts Hill, Tennessee, Gordon Turner

The membership of that Scotts Hill Silver Band sounds like an honor roll of that time; Lester C. Austin, Director who by now could play any instrument in that band but usually played lead cornet; and, Leonard L. Brigance, Charles Smith Austin, ValDee Austin, Bill Brigance, and Jake Swift, cornets; Pleas and Atkins Austin and Elmer D. Brigance, altos; Caleb Perry Patterson and Will T. Austin, trombones; Oscar Stephens, B-flat base; M. Edgar Fanning, E-flat base; Henry P. Davenport base drum; and John Lee Austin, snare drum.

Edgar Fanning went to Gleason, Tennessee to organize a band there. He did that alright but he also got a job in the bank, rose to be cashier and manager and chalked up an unexcelled 50-plus year record before his death a few years ago.

Notes for WILLIAM GRANVILLE LAFAYETTE (FATE) MONTGOMERY:

Uncle Fate's Changing Name

We always called him "Uncle Fate" which was proper since he was my grandfather's brother and my great uncle. I had always assumed his name was Lafayette but when he registered for the draft in 1918, he signed his name as William Granville Montgomery. Granville was the name of his grandfather so that was a good choice. In the 1910 and 1920 census, he is listed as Fayette which ties with the nickname that we used. For the 1920 census, he became William G. and by 1930, he is just W. G. He married his first wife as Lafayette but was W. G. for his second. It seems that "Uncle Fate" has a more complex name than previously thought. I am going with William Granville Lafayette Montgomery to cover all bases. I will still refer to him as "Uncle Fate."

Uncle Fate also used W. G. Montgomery for a marriage license that was issued on April 26, 1919 for him to marry Pearl Scott. This license was not returned and apparently was never used.

Notes for WILLIAM CARL BUTLER:

According to Mr. Ambrose Carver, a serious flu epidemic existed in Decatur County in approximately 1918. During this time, Carl Sr. came down with the flu and was in a coma for 6-8 weeks. No doubt, this was part of the so called "Spanish Flu" that swept the United States and the world near the end of World War I.

Uncle Lynn Welch place - David Welch sold approx. 25-30 acres to the "Coalings Company" for use in charcoal production. Timber was cut in approximate 4' lengths and stacked in large piles for burning or smoldering into charcoal. The charcoal was then hauled by wagon to Brownsport Furnace to fire the furnace for iron smelting. Iron ore dug out of area hills was hauled to the furnace area. During this time, 12-15 houses were built at Brownsport for workers. Years later, when Carl Butler, Sr.'s family was sharecroppers at what is near the present J. G. Brasher home, some of the fields there had places where the plowed ground showed evidence of the charcoal burning operations--- dark black soil. The Butler family lived here for several years. Carl Butler and Edna Welch's children were born on the Lynn Welch place. It was a challenging time for the family. During the winter months, Edna would split open the cotton sacks and place them on the floor as a rug to block some of the cold air coming through the cracks in the floor.

Services For Mr. Butler Held At Decaturville

Services for William Carl Butler, Sr., 76 of Bemis, were held at the Decaturville Methodist Church with Rev. L. R. Williams officiating. Burial was in Decaturville Cemetery with Wylie Funeral Home in charge.

Mr. Butler died August 29 at the Madison County Hospital after a long illness.

He was a retired farmer. He was born in Decatur County, the son of the late Austin and Alice Butler. He was married to the former Edna Welch, who survives. He also leaves two sons, Carl Butler, Jr. of Decaturville and Charles Butler of Bemis; one daughter, Mrs. Rogers Moore of Lexington; a brother, Clyde Butler of Decaturville; six sisters, Mrs. Richard Blount, Mrs. Walt Morgan, and Mrs. Bonnie Keeton of Decaturville, Mrs. William Myracle of Memphis, Mrs. Floyd Welch of Wyatt, Missouri; Mrs. Joe Hopper, Newbern; and nine grandchildren.

A fire on March 25, 1927 destroyed all records between March 23, 1921 and March 25, 1927.

Notes for WILLIAM CARL BUTLER, JR.:

Carl Butler was the son of the late Carl Butler Sr. and Edna Welch Butler. He married Mary Lynn Montgomery, daughter of the late Oscar and Euda Lancaster Montgomery, on Nov. 28, 1943 by W. E. Boatman. They met in early 1942 at Keeton Springs Methodist Church where Mary was a member. Carl worked as a carpenter and as a welder's helper on Tennessee gas line, the first one installed in this area.

On May 11, 1944, Carl was notified of his upcoming physical at Ft. Oglethorpe, GA. He and other young men met at the Decaturville Courthouse on June 13, 1944. They boarded a Greyhound bus for Camp Shelby, MS, where they were sworn in. On July 10, they moved to Sheppard Field, Wichita Falls, TX. Meanwhile, Mary worked at Salant and Salant in Parsons.

Carl trained in transmitter equipment at Truex Field, Madison, WI. He then went to Scott Field, IL, back to Sheppard Field, then Dow Field at Bangor, ME. On July 10, 1945, he was moved to Presque Isle, ME, then to Ft. Totter, NY, and from there to Goose Bay, Labrador. After one year, Carl boarded a C-47 for Checapee Falls, MA, and was discharged to return home, among others happy to be going home to loved ones.

In November 1946, they purchased the Curry Morgan home place in the Davis Community. In 1949, Carl was employed by the state of Tennessee in the Weights and Measures Division. Jerry was born August 3, 1949; Larry was born September 1, 1951; and Betty arrived on July 23, 1956. Carl was employed by Arthur Brothers for four months at Nunnely, near Centerville, TN, building and painting a pump station. In 1956, he worked for G. G. Morgan operating heavy equipment near Jefferson City, TN. During that year he was called home to work for Kaddis Manufacturing Corp. in Parsons. They built a new home during 1959, where they continue to make their home today. Mary decided to stay home and take care of the children and the garden.

Jerry graduated from Georgia Tech with a degree in electrical engineering. Larry graduated from the University of Tennessee at Martin with a degree in mechanical engineering technology. Betty graduated from the University of Tennessee at Knoxville with a degree in chemical engineering.

In 1993, Carl and Mary took a western trip, traveling through Missouri, Iowa, Nebraska, Colorado, Arizona, New Mexico, Oklahoma, Texas and Arkansas. Highlights of the trip were a visit to St. Genevieve, MO, and a train ride to the top of Pike's Peak in the snow.

Notes for MARY LYNN MONTGOMERY:

Mary Lynn remembers Papa Lancaster sitting either on the front porch on the homemade willow furniture or in the winter time inside by the fire place. She remembers Mama Lancaster with her ever smiling face. Mama Lancaster was always happy to see anyone who came to see her.

Mary Lynn remembers while a group of cousins were together playing, we got permission to go across the corn field to visit Uncle Curry and Aunt Betty. Before we reached our destination, we missed my little sister Melba. All of us went back to find her and she had fell asleep in a corn middle holding a baby doll.

Notes for DOROTHY JEAN LANCASTER:
The Lancaster Descendants, Patricia Ann Maners, July 4, 1991

Dorothy remembers going to the barn and helping Mama Lancaster and Mama hold the sheep while Mama Lancaster and Mama sheared the sheep.

Dorothy remembers going with Geneva to milk. Geneva had a big bucket and I had a little red jelly bucket. Junior would follow us and get a stick and poke the old cow and the cow would kick the milk over and spill it. I would cry. Geneva would say "don't cry, I will get him one of these days." Junior poked the cow again and Geneva squirted him in the face with the milk.

Notes for JERRY LYNN IVEY:
Jerry L. Ivey, PARSONS

Funeral services for Jerry Lynn Ivey, age 59, of Parsons will be conducted at 2:00 pm today, July 21, 2003 in the Chapel of Decatur County Funeral Home with Bro. Gary Drum officiating. Interment will follow at Concord United Methodist Church Cemetery near Decaturville.

Mr. Ivey passed away Saturday at Henderson County Hospital from injuries received in an automobile accident.

Jerry Lynn began his professional career in education as a Teacher then became a Coach and later a Principal. In August, 1976, he took a position with James W. Ayers, who was building Decatur County Manor. He became the Administrator of the Manor and in 1977 became the Director of Operations for Ayers and Associates. In 1985, Ayers and Associates merged with American Health Centers, Inc. and he became the President of the Tennessee Division and was responsible for twenty-five facilities. In 1987, Mr. Ivey became the President of American Health Centers and later Chairman of the Board in 1998. In 2000, after twenty-four plus years with the corporation and its predecessor Ayers and Associates, Mr. Ivey retired. Much of the corporations culture and success is a direct result of Mr. Ivey's selfless dedication to the job, perseverance, and strong leadership. Retirement did not last long for Mr. Ivey. In June, 2001, he along with D.J. Brewer purchased Brewer Funeral Home in Parsons, currently Decatur County Funeral Home.

Jerry Lynn Ivey spent a lifetime serving others. His dedication, commitment, and integrity are qualities that have been and will continue to be a guiding light for those who knew him.

Mr. Ivey was preceded in death by his parents, Walter S. and Willie Mae Thompson Ivey, a brother, Wayne Ivey, and a son, Chris Ivey.

He is survived by his wife, Mary Ivey of Parsons; one daughter, Jennifer Kennedy and husband Johnny of Decaturville; three step-daughters, and spouses, Lisa Davis and Mark of Parsons, Gina Maiden and George of Memphis and Tracey Smith of Memphis. Other survivors include three grandchildren, Logan Watkins, Ivey Watkins, and Rylan Kennedy and eight step-grandchildren, Jim Davis, Ryan Davis, Leslie Davis, Jared Davis, Sarah Maiden, Mary Grace Maiden, Laken Lomax, and Sydney Smith.

Serving as pallbearers are, James Earl Ivey, Johnny Kennedy, Mark Davis, George Maiden, James W. Ayers, Danny Graves, Reeder Martin, and Jim Smith. Honorary pallbearers are Jim Davis, Ryan Davis and Tyrone Sparks.

Visitation will resume this morning at 10:00 AM and will continue until time for the service at 2:00 PM.

In lieu of flowers, the family has requested memorial contributions be made to the Chris Ivey Memorial Scholarship Fund.

The News Leader, Parsons, TN, December 19, 2001, Page B-12

Seth's Four!

Seth Logan Montgomery celebrated his fourth birthday on November 25, 2001. Many family and friends helped Seth enjoy his birthday. He wants to say a special thank you to Aunt Beverly for her wonderful homemade chili and to Ma Ma Landers for her special homemade chicken salad sandwiches.

Everyone enjoyed hotdogs, cake and ice cream. Seth also celebrated his birthday with friends at I'm a Learn'in Day Care with cupcakes on Wednesday.

He is the son of Donny and Loretta Montgomery of Scotts Hill.

His maternal grandparents are David and Carolyn Landers of Decaturville and his paternal grandparents are Kenneth and Wanda Lancaster of Scotts Hill and Lois and Charolette Montgomery of Decaturville.
