

William Riley & Mary Jane Hailes

These children are a son and daughter of William M Hailes and Mary Coggin and share the tombstone with them. According to the monument they were both born September 26, 1841 and both died January 12, 1842.

It is easy to assume they were twins since they have the same birthdate, But it is hard to imagine why they died on the same day some five months later. But it was a time of epidemic diseases that swept many people away.

Whatever the cause they were buried at Jerrimah Coggin Heirs cemetery and relocated at Mt Holly cemetery. There is no record of anyone being present at their disinterment.
