

Virginia Olene Pack

Virginia Olene Pack was born November 22, 1914 and died February 9, 1919. She was a daughter of Felton Pack (1868-1936) and Jennie Parker (1878-1896).

Her parents, Felton and Jennie, had an odd habit of naming all their children with names that started with the letter "O." They were: Orvin (1899), Ophie (1902), Otis (1904), Ollie (1906), Oscar (1909), Ola (1917) and, appropriately Omega (1922).

Virginia Olene was buried at Pack cemetery. She was later disinterred and relocated at Mt Holly cemetery. Noone was present at her disinterment.

"Her spirit smiles from that bright shore, and softly whispers weep no more."
