BETTY LOU WOODSIDE, passed away on Thursday, August 5, 2004 in Houston, Texas. She was born March 19, 1925 in Ennis, Texas. For the past 9 years Betty has struggled with devastating Alzheimers. Betty was a devoted wife, a very special and loving mother, companion and wonderful friend. She moved to Houston, Texas in 1959 with her husband, L. N. (Pete) Woodside and their three children. She lost her husband in 1995. Betty never met a child she did not love; in fact she was a surrogate mother to Lanelle Bush of Houston. Lanelle will miss her special 2nd mom, but will continue to have the loving memories of Betty's unconditional love. Betty's caretaker for those 9 years was her loving and devoted daughter, Linda Reichardt. They were not only mother and daughter, but also best of friends. Betty was a big Astror fan, in fact up until 1 week ago, she would smile and call out Jeff Bagwell's name any time she heard a ball game on television. Thanks Jeff for making her smile! She was a member of the Sunday school class, "Nothing but the Truth" at Second Baptist Church...the family thanks the members of that class for their continuous support and prayers these last 9 years. The family would also like to share a big special thanks to Billie Lusk and Associates, Frank Carroll, and Rita Gould, for their continue support of Betty's daughter, Linda, thus allowing her to keep her new business alive throughout this very stressful time of care giving of her mom. There are numerous others the family wishes to thank for always being there, you all know who you are. Betty is also survived by her two dear sons, Larry Woodside of Houston, TX and Gregory Woodside of Dayton, OH; also of Dayton, OH; Debbie Woodside, granddaughter, Heather and great-grandson, Jensen. Also Baby Blue, her faithful dog. Betty we all know you are now in a very peaceful place in the arms of our beloved Jesus. We will all miss you so very much. Rest in peace and love my dear.

The Funeral Service will be held at 2:00 p.m., Saturday afternoon, August 7, 2004 at Second Baptist Church, 6400 Woodway.
