The spirit of little Harry Hale took its heavenly flight Tuesday at 9 o'clock p.m. to a higher, brighter and purer world.

He was the bright little 21 months old child of Mr. and Mrs. F'relin Hale and has been ill for the past four weeks. Everything earthly was done to restore him back to health and keep his bright sunshiny countenance among us, but God said "suffer little children to come unto me, for of such is the kingdom of Heaven," and Harry only obeyed the summons of "Him who doeth all things well."

To the bereaved loved ones he has left behind, the Review tenders its sincere sympathy.

His little, remains were laid to rest Wednesday afternoon at 8 o'clock in the city cemetery, Rev. Hensley and Oakley saying the last sad rites at the grave.

Hayes, Arthur
Arthur Hayes was drowned in Caney Fork Saturday evening last about 6:30 o’clock. He had taken dinner and spent the afternoon at the home of Enoch Atnip, and in company with David J. Atnip and Rev. J. B. Dickens was on his way to church. They had crossed the river at the same place-at what is known as the “Floating Mill” Ford, but the river had risen since noon and the mule Mr. Hayes was riding got into deep water and he was swept under and drowned, the mule being carried some distance down stream, but finally succeeded in getting out. Mr. Atnip who had crossed ahead of Arthur and Rev. Mr. Dickens, who had turned back, were not close enough to render any assistance.

Large crowds searched for the body all day Sunday and at night stretched a large net across the chancel. Early Monday morning he was found lodged in the net, and burial followed in the afternoon at 2:30 o’clock at the family burying ground, with services by Rev. J. B. Dickens.

Hendrixson, Laura

On Sunday morning at 9 o’clock the angel of death visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Taylor, and claimed their daughter, Mrs. Laura Hendrixson. She was married in August, 1904, to Mr. M. C. Hendrixson, and their journey through life had been as peaceful as the breeze on a May day. She has been a sufferer of that dreaded disease consumption for several weeks and her death was not unexpected. She was twenty-one years and seven months old. She professed faith in Christ in 1903, joined the M. E. church, and up to the time of her death, had lived a consistent christian. Her walk in life has made impressions on the minds of our people that will never die. Services were conducted at the home and grave by Rev. W. P. Banks. Her remains were laid to rest in the Chestnut Grove Cemetery Monday afternoon. The heart broken husband and family have the sympathy of all.
