A BRIEF HISTORY OF THE ACTIVITIES OF THE 11TH INFANTRY DURING THE WAR.

This regiment left Camp Forrest, Ga., April 16th, 1918, embarked from Hoboken, N. J., on the U.S.S. Leviathan, April 24th, 1918 and arrived in Brest, France, May 2nd, 1918. Left Brest on May 6th, 1918 and detrained at Bar-sur-Aube, May 8th, 1918. Training in this area until June 1st. On May 18th a standard of colors were presented to the Regiment on behalf of the descendants of the French Officers who fought with us during the Revolution. The Regiment moved from here to Brienne-le-Chateau and entrained on June 2nd, arriving at Le Thillot on June 4th, Regimental Headquarters being established at St. Maurice. June 7th, this regiment moved to Moosch, Alsace. This area was German territory at the beginning of the war. While here the regiment was attached to the 77th Div. (French). From here the regiment moved on June 13th for the trenches of the Anould Sector, arriving at Le Collet on June 14th. The first casualties suffered on the night of June 14th. While moving up to the trenches Captain M. W. Clark was severely wounded and Private Jos. Kanerski, Co. "I" killed by enemy shell-fire. Early on morning of June 26th the enemy attempted to raid the positions held by Co's "I" and "L". The raid was repulsed with losses to the enemy. July 1st at 2:00 A.M., enemy again attempted a raid on outposts held by Co. "G" and "H". Bosche were driven off with a loss of one officer killed and several men wounded. July 3rd regiment took over sub-sectors Bichstein and Gaschney of the Anould Sector. Regimental P.O., at Camp Nicolas. Regiment remained in this sector until July 14th. July 15th embussed to St. Die Sector. Regimental Headquarters at Denipaire. The first prisoner captured by the 5th Division was taken on July 23rd, by a patrol composed of men of Co. "I" 11th Inf., 2nd Lieut. H.S. Soper, commanding. July 28th second prisoner was taken by patrol commanded by Lieut. J.W. Guise of Co. "L". When Trappelle was taken by the 6th Infantry on Aug. 17th, Co. "A" 11th Infantry co-operated with that regiment. Aug. 22nd the regiment left the trenches. This ended our position warfare. Aug. 25th, arrived at Archette. Embussed from here, Aug. 30th, to Neuwillers Area. Left area for St. Mihiel Area Sept. 6th. ST. MIHIEL: Our barrage started at 1:00 A.M., Sept. 12th. Regiment got in position for jumping off at 4:30 AM Sept. 12th. The attack started at 5 AM. The 357th Infantry (96th Div.) was on our right. 3rd Bn. was assault battalion 1st Bn. followed and then 2nd Bn. Regiment reached all objectives on scheduled time, taking hundreds of prisoners. Bois des Saulx, Bois des Grandes Portions, Bois de la Pappes, Bois St. Claude, Vieville-en-Haye and Bois Gerard were all taken by this regiment Sept. 12th. On Sept. 15th a short but fierce counter-attack of the enemy was broken up by the regiment. About midnight Sept. 15th, regiment relieved by 61st Inf., moving into intermediate position and remained there until Sept. 16th. On Sept. 29th, while stationed at Dieulouard, three enemy shells caused a great number of casualties in 1st Bn. On Oct. 1st Bn., Reg. Hdqrs. established at Trondes. Oct. 4th, embussed from Foug to a camp near Lampere. Oct. 5th, regiment moved to Foret de Hesse. Oct. 11th, moved to Bois de Guisy and on Oct. 12th, to vicinity of Montfaucon. Oct. 13th, casualties were suffered here as result of heavy shelling from enemy guns. Took up position around Ferme de la Madeleine night of Oct. 13th. Went "over" morning of Oct. 14th., and remained in action continuously until Oct. 22nd, when regiment moved into support position. On Oct. 21st, Bois des Rappes was taken by this regiment. The taking of this position is the subject of letters of commendation by Army and Corps Commanders. The Regiment again went into action Nov. 3rd in the Meuse drive and remained in action to the end of the fighting on Nov. 11th at 11 A.M. During the fighting from Nov. 5th to 11th, this regiment took from the enemy: Linx-Davant-Dun, Hill 260, on Nov. 5th; Bois du Fayel, Murvaux, Bois de Bussy, Fontaines, les Fonzy Bois, Bois Chassogne, Bois de Failles, Croix Morand and Bois du Corrol, on Nov. 6th; Hill 378, Prandeville and Hill 373, on Nov. 7th; Bois de Remoiville, Bois de Moncel, Jametz and Lamoi-ille, on Nov. 9th; Louppy, on Nov. 10th.
