PRAYER of a SPORTSMAN

Dear Lord, in the battle that goes on through life

I ask but a field that is fair,

A chance that is equal with all the strife,

A courage to strive and to dare;

And if I should win, let it be by the code

With my faith and my honor held high;

And if I should lose, let me stand by the road,

Generation 2 (con't)

And cheer as the winners go by.

And Lord, may my shouts be ungrudging and clear,
A tribute that comes from the heart,
And let me not cherish a snarl or a sneer or play any sniveling part;
Let me say, "There they ride, on whom laurel's bestowed
Since they played the game better than I."
Let me stand with a smile, by the side of the road,
And cheer as the winners go by.

So grant me to conquer, if conquer I can,
By proving my worth in the fray,
But teach me to lose like a regular man,
And not like a craven, I pray;
Let me take off my hat to the warriors that strode
To victory splendid and high,
Just teach me to stand by the side of the road
And cheer as the winners go by.

LEAVES FROM LIFE'S JOURNAL

The greater part of the contents of the following pages was dictated by Gaston LaFayette Braley (Braly);
"With the hope that this may be of interest to my children, grandchildren and other relatives and friends.
"Therefore I dedicate this effort to them."

Very little interest was manifested, in the South, during my childhood days, in keeping records, or family history; therefore I am depending on memory for the most part, for these early reminiscences, and later episodes of my life, which I will endeavor, to the best of my ability, to portray truthfully.

My immediate family are more or less conversant with many of the important events which I have related to them at various times; nevertheless, I will proceed to give a somewhat detailed account of events as they occur to me.

I was born on July 14, 1858, in Ashland, Wayne Co., Tenn. in a log house of four rooms, in the backwoods of the state, and surrounded by very primitive, unsettled conditions.

I grew up without the companionship of my father, as he died when I was but little more than three years of age. My knowledge of him is very limited. I remember seeing him but twice; the first time was when he saved my life by rescuing me from the jaws of a vicious hog, by killing him with a hammer. The second time, he lay in his casket --dead.

A Short History of my Father JOHN STEELE BRALEY

He was born on Feb. 14, 1813 in Orange Co., N.C.
Was educated in the University of North Carolina
Was a Civil Engineer and Surveyor Married Nancy Melvina Stowe, Nov. 11, 1846, and moved west to Tennessee.

hair and black eyes. He built the first house, in what is now Linden, Perry Co., Tenn. which later became the County seat. The family lived there for many years. Surveying Counties was his special work, and in many instances, he was paid in land... thereby acquiring several hundred acres of forest land; which after the war, and after his death, my mother was unable to hold title to, thereby loosing all but one small farm. He died in Sept. 1861, of pneumonia caused by exposure while surveying. Perhaps at this time it might be of interest to describe the method used at that time, for marking the boundary lines, through the forest, and I will do so by relating an event that to me was intensely interesting; an old friend of my father's and I were walking along the road, in a part of the country that I didn't know that my father had ever seen, when the friend - Mr. Dabbs said, "Come here, and I will show you some of your father's work." He pointed up on a tree to some marks about eight feet from the ground which had been made with a small ax, saying; "Your father did that while surveying my father's land." We followed along the line which he had surveyed and the trees on either side were marked like the one above mentioned. After a while we came to a corner, and he showed me how all the surrounding trees were marked on the side next to the corner. Mr. Dabbs said that my father remarked that "those notches would remain as long as the tree existed." They were shallow marks made in the outer bark. (If I were there today I could go to the exact spot.) He was buried close by a large tree, near the town of Hohenwald, Tenn.

A SHORT STORY OF MY MOTHER NANCY MELVINA STOWE BRALY

She was born on Feb. 28, 1824, in Lincoln Co., N.C.
Stood about 5 ft. 7 in., weight about 140 lb., brown eyes and hair.
Married John Steele Braly Nov. 11, 1846. Moved west to Wayne Co., Tenn.
Was very attractive. Had a common school education, besides being highly trained in all the ways of converting raw material - such as wool, cotton flax and silk - into clothing. Was an expert weaver on the hand loom, making cloth of different kinds and beautiful designs in counterpanes, (Bedspreads etc.) gathering bark and leaves with different kinds of flowers from most kinds of trees and plants to make combinations of colors for dying cloth. She was self reliant, industrious, honest and strict. She wouldn't allow even a semblance of wrong to be committed by any member of her family without applying the old method of punishment... the switch. She was a member of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church and wanted me to become a minister, but I didn't see it that way, so we disagreed.

-3-

She was the mother of six children... three boys and three girls whose names follow:

Notes for Frances H. Seabolt:

In the 1880 census, Frances H. Seabolt is living in the household of her brother, Thos. W. Seabolt.

In the 1920 census, Francis Brawley is a boarder in the J. B. Martin household.

In the 1930 census, Francis Brawley is living in the household of her son, Elmer Brawley.

In the 1940 census, Francis Brawley is living in the household of her son, Elmer Brawley.

Research is continuing to confirm that Frances Seabolt from the 1880 census is in fact Francis Brawley from the 1900 census. It is established through public record that William T. Brawley married Frances Seabolt. The ages and birthplace of parents do not match exactly between Francis Seabolt and Francis Brawley so our research continues to reconcile these differences.

William T. Brawley's family is researched back to Ulster, Ireland with the name Braly. William's mother, Nancy moved to Idaho with William's brother, Gaston.
