Story of the naming of Erwin, Tennessee
(from "Greasy Cove in Unicoi County" by Pat Alderman)

"Even today, during the year of 1975, speculation continues about the name of our town Erwin. The United States Post Office Department has been accused of misspelling the name. It has been said that they spelled the name with a w instead of a v. However the Post Office Records state that William McInturff was appointed Post Master of Erwin December 5, 1879.

"During the early months of 1876, the newly elected officials of Unicoi County learned that Cornelius Vanderbilt was in the area looking around with speculative interest in buying large tracts of mountain land. Hoping to attract the financier to Unicoi's beautiful valley, they named the county seat Vanderbilt. The big man was notified of his namesake. Time dragged on for three or four years, during which time Mr. Vanderbilt manifested no interest in the little town nestling in the East Tennessee hills. He chose instead the Biltmore Estate site located in western North Carolina.

"Sometime during the spring session of the 1879 Tennessee Legislature, Colonel John R. Miller, State Senator from Carter County, was asked to introduce a bill to change the name from Vanderbilt to Ervin. The name Ervin was recommended in recognition of D. J. N. Ervin, outstanding citizen who had made generous contributions to the community. Many of the county and town citizens had urged the change.

"Now follows a direct quote from Nat T. Tucker, a man lived in the town at the time. 'With the name of the town changed to Ervin, it occurred that a change in the name of the Post Office would be proper and it occurred that Ervin had an outstanding man by the name of Jesse B. Ervin who was loved by everyone who came in contact with him and who had been elected as Unicoi's first County Court Clerk, who spelled his name Erwin and in recognition of him the Post Office was named Erwin, thus giving the double name Ervin, Erwin'"

Remarks: James Irvine's family was one of some dozen families which set sail in 1732 from Belfast, Ireland under the command of Roger Gordon for the purpose of establishing a settlement at the Kings Tree on the Black River in South Carolina. One of his sons perished during the voyage. They arrived at Charlestown (Charleston), South Carolina after being over two months at sea. After spending some time to regain their health from the long voyage, some of the family proceeded on small vessels up the Black River bordered with thickly forested swamps that shut out the daylight. On reaching the Kings Tree, great was their surprise to find nothing but primeval wilderness. The company scattered to select home sites near streams or springs. The Irvines selected a site about a mile distant and erected a crude shelter. Later when the balance of the family arrived, a large cabin was built with thatched roof and mud chimneys. In South Carolina, their last name soon became to be spelled Ervin (from Irvine). Source of this information is the Bible of John Ervin (the grandson of James Irvine) as reported by Elson E. Irwin.

Francis Erwin (February 29, 1780) (by Mary Kennedy)
John Erwin (1786) (by Mary Kennedy)

Mother:

Father: [27] (one researcher says the father was Joseph Erwin who remained in Ireland)
Remarks: Arthur Erwin purchased 2,000 acres of land in Tincum Township, a short distance from his brother, William. He made other land purchases before returning to Ireland to bring over his family. With his wife and seven children, ages one to eleven years, they sailed from Newry on the ship "Newry Assistance" on May 1, 1768 and landed in Philadelphia on August 18, 1768. During the voyage, his wife, Mary Scott died in childbirth. She and the dead infant were buried at sea on July 10, 1768. In March of 1769, Arthur Erwin bought a tract of 528 acres in which lies the city of Erwina, Bucks County, Pennsylvania and there he lived the remaining 22 years of his life.

In the diary of John Dyer of Plumstead, Bucks County, Pennsylvania, Arthur Erwin is identified twice. He is mentioned on March 21, 1776 as selling a lot to Wm. Doyle. On June 9, 1791, the diary indicates that a Col. Arthur Erwin was shot through and died instantly in the house in Tioga in the night and was brought down to Tincum Township and buried the 17th.

Arthur Erwin received several communications from George Washington and provided the manpower and boats to get Washington across the Delaware River.

The year that George Washington became our first President, surveyors employed by Phelps-Gorham in Canandaigua began laying out township lots in the vicinity of Painted Post. While the surveyors were working, Colonel Arthur Erwin came up the Old Andaste Trail supervising a cattle drive destined for Fort Niagra. With an indian guide he studied the lay of the land and liked what he saw. He went to Canandaigua to offer Mr. Phelps $1500 for Town 2, Range 2 and which became Erwin, New York. Arthur Erwin was a wealthy Irish immigrant, had served in the American Army during the Revolution, and owned other land property as well. Colonel Erwin was shot and killed by a "squatter" over a land and crop dispute. As a result, Colonel Erwin never lived in the Town of Erwin. His sons, Samuel and Francis, inherited the portion which is now the Village of Painted Post. In 1826, the Town of Erwin organized and held their first election on March 7, 1826. Sam Erwin was elected the first supervisor. In 1838, General F. E. Erwin was elected supervisor of the Town of Erwin. In 1848-1849, the first school house was built by Arthur H. Erwin and rented to the district for $100 per year. The school house was built on the south side of the river.

Also one negro girl named Sarah and all her issue at my decease. Also one half of my moveable estate at the decease of myself and my wife.

--- In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this thirty first day of January A.D. 1794.

In 1791, Edward's youngest son, Benjamin, filed suit against his father, Edward, in the Superior Court of Washington County, Tennessee. This was a dispute over land promised to his deceased older brother, Francis. A transcript of that litigation is on file in the Tennessee State Library in Nashville, and was finally culminated in March of 1800, at which time Edward Erwin, Jr. was deceased. Some random "receipts" suggest that Mary Fowler might have survived her husband, at least for a short time. (source of this information is Ms. Lou Hudson Pellican)

"John Erwin vs. Samuel Erwin – Rockingham. Slander. John Erwin deposed, 15 August 1793: in year 1776 plaintiff (Samuel Erwin) came to defendant's father's house and told defendant that himself and his brothers, Benjamin, Andrew, John and William Erwin, had come to agreement to value the their father formerly possessed at 300 pds, and that Samuel and his brothers, Benjamin and Andrew, had purchased the shares belonging to John and William." (from Records of Augusta County, Virginia 1745-1800, Vol. II)

"Lowery vs. Erwin – Causes ended. --- Bill-Jane Lowry obtained judgement vs. Andrew Erwin. While earning his living of the farm his calling was to the ministry and he pastored four churches in the area in his 30 years of preaching -- Calvary Baptist in Exeter, Mount Olivet in Pierce City, Rock Springs in Seligman, and First Baptist in Washburn. Leon was a loving pastor and lead most of his churches through remodeling and building. The only thing ever bragged about was the fact he was in the "top ten" of his graduating class at Washburn High (there was only 7 in the class). Leon also lived by his class motto: "Good, Better, Best - Never let it rest - Til the Good is Better and the Better is Best." Leon and his brother Ethel operated the first school bus in the Washburn school district. They picked up other children to ride with them to school in a buggy, pulled by a horse named Fred.

The following was transcribed by Philip Erwin to his daughter:

“I was born in Barry, Co. Missouri, Cassville was the county seat, October 5, 1861. My mother’s maiden name was Katherine Myres, and she was born in Pennsylvania, moved to Indiana and from there to Missouri. She lived on the Wabash River at one time and spoke of it time and time again. She was of Pennsylvania dutch parentage and could not speak a word of English until she was eleven years old. Philip Myres was my grandfather and he lived with us in Missouri after the war and came to California with us. Samuel Alexander Erwin was my father’s name and he was born in Tennessee. (Dad thinks on the Wabash River) Grandfather was an officer in the War of 1812 and had his sword. He cut off the end so we children would not hurt ourselves and later used it to cut corn. I was two years old when my father went to fight with the South. My only remembrance of my father was when he came home on furlough and I was about 3 years old. He came to see my brother. He went out the back door as the federal soldiers came in the front door. There was a big orchard in the back of the house and he escaped into it. He was six foot or over. He had four brothers, George, Bill and Joshuay. (Oops, three brothers) He was the youngest in the family.”

Barney McCoy Erwin (September 9, 1917)
Daisy Dean Erwin (February 3, 1921)
Mother: Laura Louise Callahan
Father: Phillip Parks Erwin [1]
Remarks: Robert was called "Henry" by most people. Sometime after the birth of Daisy Dean, Verna's health went down hill, until she became bed-ridden. Verna's parents took their daughter and her two small children into their home to care for them. Henry was invited to stay and worked at the Spar Mill for a while. Eventually, he left to "go west", and never returned home. Family stories tell that a box of clothes and a letter was received explaining that Robert Henry Erwin had died. No one in the family had the money to go and investigate what had happened; and so the story grew. Some relatives say the Robert Henry had shot himself in the leg accidentally and had to have his leg amputated. His death was supposed to have been the result of complications from the amputation. Another story grew that Henry had gone to Colorado and changed his name, knowing that his gravely ill wife would never recover. Verna Melissa Garland Erwin died January 27, 1923 and was laid to rest in the Garland plot of the Martin's Creek Cemetery. The responsibility of two small children was left up to their grandparents. Barney was raised by the Erwin grandparents and Daisy was raised by the Garland grandparents (Augustus and Adina Griffith Garland).

Born: 1717 in Ireland
Died: September 26, 1772 after a short illness (diary of John Dyer of Plumstead, Bucks County, Pennsylvania) William and his second wife, Margaret, are buried at the Neshaminy Presbyterian Church cemetery
Occupation:
Married: ? (first wife unknown)
Margaret ? (The diary of John Dyer of Plumstead, Bucks County, Pennsylvania stated "April 29, 1773, Margret Erwin moved from here to her mothers this day.") (Margaret died March 11, 1790 in Neshaminy, Pennsylvania)
Children: John Erwin (by first wife)
William Erwin (by first wife)
James Erwin (by first wife)
Joseph Erwin (by Margaret)
Nathaniel Erwin (by Margaret)
Mother:
Father: Matthew Erwin, {Matthew Irvine}²⁸ [2] (one researcher says the father was Joseph Erwin who remained in Ireland)
Remarks: It is a matter of record that William Erwin purchased 226 acres of land in Plumstead Township, Bucks County, Pennsylvania. He was a prominent citizen and a Justice of the Peace. William lived in Dyerstown, Bucks County. The following note in John Dyer's diary also appears: "March 5th & 6th, 1767 - surveyer on line between father and Wm. Erwin" (properties). Some information from Elson E. Irwin. His children have not been given a separate listing yet until more information is available.

Erwin, William {Irvine, William}¹⁰

Born:

Died: between July 23, 1763 and July 26, 1769

Occupation:

Married: Rebekah

Elizabeth

Children: Mary Erwin (may have been adopted by David Erwin after William died)

Margaret Erwin (may have been adopted by David Erwin after William died)

Samuel Erwin (may have been adopted by David Erwin after William died)

Mother: Mary

Father: Christopher Irvine [2]

Remarks:

- Lived in Bedford County, Virginia.
- The will of Christopher Irvine, dated July 23, 1763, indicates that the executors are to be his two sons David and William and his wife Mary. However David was the only surviving executor when the will was proved July 26, 1769. William must have died between 1763 and 1769.
- A lot of this is guess work.

Erwin, William (may be {William Irvine; William Erwin}⁵ [2])

Born:

Died: November 16, 1774 in Cumberland Twp., York County, Pennsylvania

Occupation:

Married: Rebeckah (born 1716; died March 1, 1763)

Rachel Morrison

Children: William Erwin (by Rebeckah) (no proof)

John Erwin (by Rebeckah) (no proof)

Samuel Alexander Erwin (April 10, 1754) (by Rebeckah) (no proof that Samuel is a son of William)

Arthur Irwin (1766)

Archibald Irwin (January 25, 1768)

Mary Irwin (1770)

Mother:

Father: [1]

Note: The family bible of Samuel Alexander Erwin, Jr. lists Samuel Alexander Erwin (born April 10, 1754) as the son of William Erwin and Rebeckah. Further research is needed to verify the above information.

Remarks:

- Source of information is C. T. Erwin and Anne Irwin.
- William found in Cumbland Twp., York County, Pennsylvania (now Franklin Twp., Adams County, Pennsylvania).
- Owned land in Cumberland Twp., York County, Pennsylvania before April 11, 1767.
- Rebeckah, his wife, died on March 1, 1763 at the age of 47. She is buried at Black's Graveyard then located in Cumberland Twp., York County, Pennsylvania now the counties have been remapped and the graveyard is located in Franklin Twp., Adams County, Pennsylvania on Belmont Road west of Gettysburg, off the Chambersburg Pike (US 30 Hwy). The inscription on her gravestone reads: "The Weights and Measures of Scotland; Here lys ye body of Rebeckah Erwin, who departed this life March, the 1st; 1763 Aged 47 years"

- Children William and John are found in the 1762 Census (tax list) for Cumberland Twp., York County and are included under head count but owned no land. A James Ervin is also found in the 1762 tax list for Cumberland Twp. and also owns no land. It is not clear at what age a son must be included in the head count but it is probably sixteen. However, Samuel Alexander Erwin would be eight years of age at the time and would not be included. There may also be other children not included in the head count.
- The 1768 tax list for Cumberland Twp., York County, Pennsylvania just lists William Erwin and James Erwin as owning property.
- A James Irwin is listed in the 1786 census for Cumberland Twp., York County, Pennsylvania.
- Will of Erwin, William – D. Nov.16, 1774 – Proved December 9, 1774; Exec.: John Stosack of Cumberland Twp.; Wife: Rachel Erwin; Children: Arthur, Archibald & Mary.
- There is a strong suspicion that this William Erwin

Remarks:

- Source of information is C. T. Erwin. Last name is sometimes spelled Erwine. Apparently, several people received land grants in the "Irish" and "Trading Camp" Settlements between 1747 and 1762. It appears that these Erwin/Irvine families were related, and all came from the same part of Ireland to Chester County, Pennsylvania, and then some moved on to the same part of Rowan County, North Carolina and others moved to Augusta County, Virginia. Montgomery County is adjacent to Chester County. In 1769, there was a Cadwalader Erwine, John Erwine, Samuel Erwine, and William Erwine in Montgomery County, Pennsylvania. However, Samuel Erwine would have been too young to be recorded in 1769. By 1779, there were no Erwines or Erwins listed who accepted or refused to accept the Oath of Allegiance in Montgomery County. --- The Erwins (Erwines) had apparently left Montgomery County by 1779. Cadwalader Erwine and William Erwine were still included in the 1769 Montgomery County Proprietary Tax List and both lived in Gwynedd Twp. Sometime between 1769 and 1779 they left Montgomery County. A Samuel Erwine and John Erwine are included in the 1769 Montgomery County Proprietary Tax List. Samuel lived in the Manor of Moreland and John lived in Horsham Twp. They too had left Montgomery County by 1779. This Samuel Erwine and John Erwine could have been a brother or father of William Erwine. It might be reasonable to assume that William Erwine might name his children after them. Samuel Erwine appeared to be the one most financially successful, owning 209 acres, 3 horses, and 6 cattle. William Erwine was a carpenter and owned 100 acres, 3 horses, and one cattle. John Erwine was a schoolmaster and did not own any land, horses or cattle. Cadwalader owned no land but he did own one horse and 2 cattle. Cadwalader was found in the 1820 Census in Warminster, Bucks County, Pennsylvania.

Church Record of the Presbyterian Church, Churchville, Bucks County, Pennsylvania
1738-1810: "William Erwin, Gwynedd, m Rebecca Roberts, d/o Cadwalader Robert of same dec'd at Gwynedd mh Nov 13, 1735/36" The Gwynedd mh (meeting house) was a Quaker meeting house and Rebecca Roberts was a Quaker.

With my wife helping every bit of the way, we delivered our first milk May 1, 1917. Our daughter, Billieann, was born in 1919. We also have a son, Jimmy, who is an engineer for the State of California. We worked the ranch from then until 1941, when we made an extended trip around the west. We decided to return to Highland because of the milder climate, but kept our home in Big Bear. We are now retired and have five grandchildren.

Mother: Hester

Father: James Irvine {James Erwin}¹ [2]

Remarks: Alexander, too, settled at Gleno, Ireland, where their ancestor, Robert Irvine and his descendants had owned land since 1584. Irvine's farm unlucky for generations, but they determined to cast aside all superstitious fear and occupy it. Made bleaching green and built mill in partnership with the McDowells (Macdowells), their kinsmen. Alexander met a beautiful Irish girl of low degree under a tree at the Irvine and MacDowell mill at nightfall. Alexander promised eternal love and apparently gave the girl his knife which was engraved with his name. A spy told Alexander's family and he was called back to Edinburg. A short time later he married Miss Gault. After a short time, the girl heard of his marriage and one moonlit night returned to the tree and stabbed herself with his knife. Her brother found her, drew the knife from her breast and holding it aloft near the "fatal trysting tree", vowed to "never sleep until he plunged the knife, stained by his sister's blood, into Alexander Irvine's heart." Her brother started that night in a boat to cross North Channel. It went down with all on board. The farm continued to fail. It was reported that at certain times around the old mill, a bright light is seen that cannot be accounted for. It had been seen several times since Alexander's Irvine's sweetheart killed herself beneath the trysting tree.

Before coming to America, Alexander lived in Scotland and he and his brother, Robert, were at a hunt in Argyleshire, Scotland, wher Alexander got into difficulty with a man and gave him wounds from which he died. Alexander and Robert fled from Scotland in hunting dress and came by night to Gleno, Ireland. Alexander, afterward pardoned, returned to Scotland and came from there to America, landed at Philadelphia, and from there to Bedford County, Virginia.

Alexander had three sons. He and his wife died the same day. The Virginia Irvines reared Andrew and the Pennsylvania Irvines brought up Christopher and William. Andrew was a revolutionary soldier.

The above information was compiled and edited by Mrs. L. Boyd, Louisville, Kentucky It was written in her Great Aunt Mayme's (Dr. Mayme Irwin Logsdon) handwriting in the 1920s. Typewritten by her Great Aunt Mary (Mayme's sister - Mary Elizabeth Irwin) in the 1970's.

Found in Cumberland County, Pennsylvania - Quarter Session Docketts 1750-1785. The following Erwins appear in the Pennsylvania County Archives Collection - Cumberland County: Alexander, Andrew, Archibald, Christopher, Edward, Gawain, James, James, Sr., John, Joseph, Robert, Samuel, Sanders, and William. Sanders was probably Alexander S. (Sandy) Erwin.

- Found in The Pennsylvania County Archives Collection, Cumberland County, (Ref. No. G180-81)
- Abstracts of Bedford County, Virginia Wills, Inventories and Accounts 1754 – 1787 by Joida Whitten. Will of Christopher Irvine of Russell Parrish in Bedford County... Yeoman... Dated July 23, 1763. Unto my beloved granddaughter Elizabeth Irvine, daughter of my son David Irvine 250 acres of land I purchased of Col. Richard Randolph called the Rich "forest" joining to James Gibson's kube lying and being in the County Bedford (but then Brunswick). Unto my two sons

David Irvine and William Irvine to be equally divided between them 290 acres being a part of said tract of land called the forrest which I purchased of Col. Richard Randolph joining the above 250 acres bequeathed to my granddaughter Elizabeth also all my outlying horses, mares, and colts except my five wagon horses and my riding horse, and also five pounds current money to each son. Executors: my two sons David Irvine and William Irvine with my beloved wife Mary. Witnesses: Stephen Goggin, Robert Russell, William Bonar. Proven: July 26, 1769 by oaths of Stephen Goggin and Robert Russell. Executor: David Irvine "the surviving Executor therein named".

- "Bedford County, Virginia Will Book 1 & 2". Deed from Christopher Irvine to William Irvine for 865 acres in Bedford County, Virginia which was recorded on May 24, 1763. Deed from Christopher Irvine to David Irvine for 865 acres in the Royal Forest (located in Bedford County, Virginia) which was recorded on May 24, 1763. (Source of information is "Bedford County, Virginia Deed Book B-2") It is possible that Christopher Irvine first arrived in Bedford County in March 1763 when 3,233 acres on the North side of Otter River was sold to him by Richard Randolph. Witnesses to this sale were William Irvine, George White, and David Irvine. Part of this land was then sold to David and William by Christopher.
- William Irvine (William Irvine)¹⁰ may be the father of Samuel Alexander Irvine, Sr. (born April 10, 1754)

David probably never saw his father who died in Tolbooth Prison at Edinburgh, Scotland while being held as a political prisoner. Partial source of information is Elson E. Irwin and Charles T. Erwin.

In 1782, David purchases a land grant of 440 acres from North Carolina (who claimed the area of Fall Creek at that time). He then purchases an additional 100 acres for a total of 540 acres. Samuel (who resides in Augusta County, Virginia) writes a letter to his brother, David (the son of David, above) in 1794, while David is living in Fall Creek, Sullivan County, Tennessee. David shows up on the 1797 Sullivan County Tennessee tax list with 540 acres. Remarks: James Irvine and his son's Alexander, George, David, William, Robert, James and Samuel came to America aboard the "George and Anne", leaving Londonderry May 9, 1729 and disembarked at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. In fact, a George Irvine married Mary Rush on May 24, 1733 at Christ Church of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. There are no other references to Irvines in Philadelphia during the period in question. This gives credence to the theory that the father and remaining sons may have arrived later and changed their names on arriving in America. Cherie R. Olson reports she has name as Robert Irvine rather than James Irvine. Partial sources of information are Elson E. Irwin and Cherie R. Olson.

Remarks: James Irvine's family was one of some dozen families which set sail in 1732 from Belfast, Ireland under the command of Roger Gordon for the purpose of establishing a settlement at the Kings Tree on the Black River in South Carolina. One of his sons perished during the voyage. They arrived at Charlestown (Charleston), South Carolina after being over two months at sea. After spending some time to regain their health from the long voyage, some of the family proceeded on small vessels up the Black River bordered with thickly forested swamps that shut out the daylight. On reaching the Kings Tree, great was their surprise to find nothing but primeval wilderness. The company scattered to select home sites near streams or springs. The Irvines selected a site about a mile distant and erected a crude shelter. Later when the balance of the family arrived, a large cabin was built with thatched roof and mud chimneys. In South Carolina, their last name soon became to be spelled Ervin (from Irvine). Sources of this information are the Bible of John Ervin (the grandson of James Irvine), Elson E. Irwin, and Cherie R. Olson.

“The military force of Augusta county in the fall of 1742, consisted of twelve companies of about fifty men each. The prominent officers were --- John McDowell. Ephraim McDowell, then an old man, was a member of his son John’s company.” (from Annals of Augusta County, Virginia 1726 – 1871).

Leo B. McDowell includes the following information in his My McDowell Family web site which was provided by Mary Semple of Mounthill, near Larne, Co. Antrim, N. Ireland and was compiled and researched by her in 1927: “John McDowell came to Gleno, parish of Raloo near Larne, Ireland in 1595 as a political exile where he married Mary Wylie. Their (grand?) son Thomas married Ann Locke. Their son Ephraim married his cousin Margaret Irvine who died (in Ireland and he) left Gleno with his two sons, three daughters, and three brothers-in-law (probably George, David and William Irvine as this is most consistent with my (C. T. Erwin) research) for America. They sailed from Larne in a sailing ship called the ‘George and Ann’ on May 29, 1731. After a short stay in Pittsburgh, Pa., they settled in Virginia.”
