August 20th, meeting—George McGlothan

Those who attended the WCGA meeting on Saturday, August 20th, 2011 were both informed and entertained by Mr. George McGlothan. Mr. McGlothan is the owner and historian of Falcon Manor, the former home of Clay Faulkner, and which is now operated as a bed and breakfast. Mr. McGlothan told the group about new additions to the historical home place, including new gardens, a tea room, and a gift shop. Another new feature that Falcon Manor has is daily tours from 9am—5pm.

Mr McGlothan also assumed the persona of former Falcon Manor owner, Clay Faulkner and through this role, told about the original owner's life and some new information about his Civil War service. For more information about Falcon Manor, visit this website: <http://www.falconrest.com/>

Offices Open for 2012

For the 2012 year, several offices will become available for anyone who wishes to be one of the following officers:

President

Vice President

Treasurer/Membership

Secretary

Office Manager

If you are interested in becoming one of these officers for 2012, email me at bcbarnes21@students.tntech.edu.

Coffee Co. Historical Society Meeting

The speaker for September's CCHS meeting will be Woody McMillin, author of In the Presence of Soldiers. He will present information about troop maneuvers in Middle Tennessee during World War II, along with numerous artifacts. Everyone is invited to attend the meeting at 7:00 p.m. on September 20, 2011, in the old Manchester courthouse on the square. For more information, contact Pat Berges at eljefe@charter.net

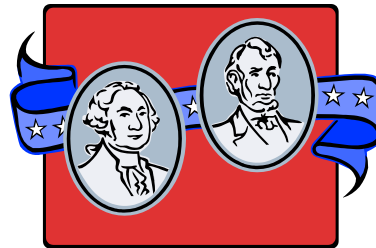

Scrapbooking.

Due to the large number of pictures and newspaper clippings that WCGA has accumulated over the years, the Board of Directors decided that it would be best if these artifacts of our group's history were preserved in a scrapbook or album of some kind. If anyone who is interested in scrapbooking or putting an album together using these photos/newspaper clippings, contact Jean Hobbs at jeanhobbs@blomand.net. Also, contact Jean Hobbs if you have any photos or newspaper clippings of past WCGA events or members that you would like to donate to the group, to attend the Genealogical convention that will be held in Rutherford County this year. More information will be provided later.

November 19th 2011—I still need a guest speaker for this meeting. If you have any suggestions for a program or guest speaker, email me at bcbarnes21@students.tntech.edu.

Pictures of Past Presidents

The WCGA officers are wanting to put pictures of past WCGA presidents on the wall of the office on Locust Street. If anyone has any pictures of our past presidents, please email Brandi Barnes at bcbarnes21@students.tntech.edu or leave a message on the WCGA Facebook page. Any photo will work. We are hoping to make each picture an 8x10 copy so they can be framed and put on the wall.

WCGA is now on Facebook!

Book Donations

At the August 20th WCGA meeting, appreciation was expressed to Martha Holt for her donation of Warren Co. Cemetery Books 1 and 2 in memory of Almetia Cunningham, and to Ladye Hunter for her contribution of Van Buren County Historical Journal Vols. I, II and III to the WCGA library. In this connection, Secretary Speaks announced that it has been decided to place a photo of the memorialized person along with the donation label in the front of donated books.

WCGA welcomes anyone interested in their family history to come by the office on Fridays where members will greet newcomers from 1pm to 4pm. The WCGA office is located on 201 Locust Street at the
