WCGA's Old Warren County, TN Family History/Photos

The timeline photo for our new site is the map of Warren County when the county was being formed in 1806.

Thanks to WCGA President Cheryl Watson Mingle, Warren county history buffs will be able to enjoy our latest venture into the internet social media world. The addition of WCGA's Old Warren County, TN Family History/Photos on Facebook was created to allow people to share their old Warren County photos and historical stories.

The site is a Public Group and is free. You would need to have your own Facebook page (free) and go to the site and ask to join the group. You may copy photos from the site for your own records. Don't miss out, over 800 people have joined since the site was created three weeks ago.

Turn Your Radio On

Kelly Marlowe, center, welcomed Larry Boyd and W.C. Chilton as guests on the December 29 "Behind the Mike" radio show in McMinnville. Both Larry and W.C. are members of the Warren County Genealogical Association and appeared as representatives and did a fine job promoting our organization. Tune in to WBMC 96.0 AM on Thursday, January 15 for our next guest appearance.

Queries

Roger Arrick has these questions:

I'm interested in buying a set of the deeds and wills books for Warren Co. If anyone has a set they'd like to sell, let me know. Also interested in the cemetery books.

Would a widow in 1898 in Warren Co who owned land, typically have a will. If so, how could a mere mortal find it? Martha ORRICK. Dist 11. South of Centertown. Roger Arrick (Roger@Arrick.com)

Looking for birth father

I believe his name was Pittman or Pitmon. He would be 83 now. Had a child with Virginia (Graham) Walker in 1959. May have moved to Shelby County, Tennessee. Jane Goodwin

We Really Know How To Do A Covered Dish and

A Pitch-In

Someone suggested we have a holiday pitch-in, and the response was “what’s that?” Well... it’s the same as a covered-dish get-together except it contains food. Thus a December 12 Holiday Luncheon became reality. It was more than a luncheon, it ended up being a meal fit for a king. Seventeen WCGA members gathered in the Magnolia Room at the Warren County Administration building for this event and no one left hungry.
