

Warren County Genealogical & Historical Association

P. O. Box 411

McMinnville, TN 37111-0411

VOLUME XXXII, Edition 1

WCGHA BULLETIN

Spring & Summer 2023

CONTENTS

Message from the Editor	3
In Memoriam: Kelly Walton Marlowe, Jr.	4
The Sedberry - 1953.....	6
Charles Faulkner Bryan	8
by Cheryl Watson Mingle
Distressing Accident	17
Postcard Page: Faulkner Springs Hotel Dining Room	18
by Chris Keathley
McMinnville: Town's original 41 acres now make up Main Street	20
1810-2023: History of the Blue Building	23
by Ann Brown
1869-1915: The Pickett-Munford House	25
by Ann Brown
The I. and U. S. Club	39
1915-1977: The School Years	41
by Bettye Pack and Bonita Mangrum
A MONTH'S VISIT IN WARREN COUNTY	48
by Martha Elkins

1977-2009: City of McMinnville 51
by Cheryl Watson Mingle
2009-2023: Abandoned and A New Beginning 55
by Ann Brown
Petition to Tennessee Legislature..... 63
Transcribed by Bettye Smith Pack
Cotton Sold in New York to Benefit Southern Prisoners 65
by Robert Bates
Elrod Family of America..... 67
by Scarlett Griffith
1898-1899 Warren County Schools..... 77
Transcribed by Ann Brown
Cemetery Decorations..... 80
Books for Sale 82
Researching in Warren County..... 83
Index 85

About Our Cover

Monty Wanamaker preserved the history of Warren County’s people and places through his artwork for many years. Our cover features his watercolor “Blue Building Auditorium” that memorializes the auditorium of McMinnville Grammar School which was demolished along with the gymnasium in 2013. This particular piece is also included in the 2014 Landmark Calendar. Our appreciation to Southern Museum and Galleries for allowing us to use Monty’s artwork.